

THE RICHMOND DISPATCH-WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1895.

IN GREEN AND WHITE

WEDDING OF MISS POWELL TO MR. BROCKENBROUGH.

The Ceremony by Bishop Newton, Followed by an Elegant Supper. Costumes of the Bride and Bridesmaids—The Guests.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Whiting Powell and Mr. James Smith Brockenbrough took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Powell, No. 302 South Grace street.

The ceremony was impressively performed by the assistant bishop, Right Rev. John B. Newton, and the occasion was marked by a dignified and refined taste which was very attractive.

The drawing-room and halls were adorned by growing plants, pink carnations, and roses, and many colored lamps, and the altar of green, against a background of white, was formed between the front windows, and white lamps and candles gave a soft light to all the surrounding.

The groom, with his two best men, Messrs. Deane Maury and Austin Brockenbrough, accompanied the officiating minister through the hall door to the altar, to the strains of Lohenberg's wedding march, played by Professor Reinhardt, and two little boys, Masters John Strother Freeman and Brockenbrough Lamb, passed from the back to the pews, drawing white ribbons that formed an aisle through which the bridal procession passed.

The bridesmaids entered by two, Misses Nettie Evans, of South Carolina, and Jessie Lee, of New York; Miss Mary Newton, and Sallie Deane, Abbie St. John and Anne, of Petersburg; Mrs. Mary Tidball, of Winchester, and Alice Brockenbrough, of New Kent county. They separated at the altar, forming in semi-circles.

Two young girls, maid-of-honor, followed—Misses Mary Leigh, cousin of Alexandria, and Sarah Howard, of the bride, and of the groom.

ENTRANCE OF THE BRIDE.

The bride entered with her father and passed down the aisle, and met the groom at the altar. She was beautifully robed in white satin, with a rich bertha of Point Duchesse lace. Her veil was caught to the head with sprays of myrtle-the-valley and a pearl necklace.

The bridegroom, with his two best men, Dr. William P. Mathews, and Mr. Charles Phillips, had not yet appointed his staff, but hopes to do so in the next few days. He has offered positions to Judge Ingram yesterday, and Captain C. W. Cunningham, and Rev. Dr. C. J. Hiden.

Governor O'Farrell said yesterday that he did not open the report of the court of inquiry until after the election of General Thibault to the Senate.

City-Hall Court News.

Only two cases were heard in the Hustings Court yesterday. Mary Colman was convicted of having partaken of several bottles of wine in St. James Thomas charged with a felonious assault was acquitted.

The trial of the case of Baldwin & Brown and Peplow against Vaughan. The case was not concluded. Captain J. A. Baldwin and Harrisonburg Land Company, verdict for plaintiff for $5,000. Captain vs. L. P. Winston, later in the day, Captain vs. J. W. C. Jackson, and their judgment.

In the Police Court Cornelius Hubard, charged with trespassing upon the property of the Marshall Cotton Mills Company and breaking window-glasses, was fined $25.

Richard Smith and Willie Green (both colored) charged with fighting. Smith was fined $5 and costs and Green $25 and costs.

Sandy Johnson, Josephine Johnson, and Eliza Smith, all colored, charged in the store of Mr. James P. Robinson. Sandy Johnson and Smith were fined $25 each and costs. Josephine was discharged.

The Officer Exonerated.

Sergeant Osburn, employed as driver for Mr. James W. Allison, was in the Police Court yesterday, charged with being disorderly. He was fined $10 and given a ticket of a watch, the property of the policeman. Sales and looked up to a third Police-Station. The stable was left unbroken and the company of which one entered it and stole a saddle valued at $20. When the driver was brought before him, he wanted to prefer charges against Police-Main Sales for refusing to allow the colored man to enter his stable. He referred him to the Chief of Police, and the latter upon receiving the complaint, instructed Captain to arrest the negro. It was proved conclusively that the negro was some distance from the stable when he approached him, and was acting as its being unlocked. Mr. Sales was exonerated.

Arrests Yesterday.

A warrant was issued yesterday against Jim Jenkins, charging him with the robbery of a watch, the property of the Marshall Pindexter. Rogers is the same who was arrested Saturday night. Jenkins is a young man, and poor, with many charming traits of character, which made friends for her wherever she was known. She died of consumption.
